

A Discussion of National Health policy Draft 2015

A one day discussion meeting was held on January 30 2015 at SHSRCK conference hall for Officials of Department of Health and Family Welfare Kerala. The main objective of the meeting was to elicit the views of department officials regarding the National health policy Draft 2015 which was placed in public domain for suggestions and comments by government of India. Dr Ellangovan IAS Secretary Health & Family welfare in his inaugural address talked about the relevance of National Health Policies of the country, further stating the importance of providing suggestions and comments to the National health policy Draft. The meeting was attended by officials from Directorate of Health Services, SHSRC K Indian System of medicine, Homeopathy department, Directorate of medical education, Community Medicine departments of Government Medical colleges, National Health Mission and State Institute of Health & Family Welfare . The views and suggestions of the group were discussed for each sections of the policy and a report was prepared, which was sent to Government of Kerala and Government of India.